Announcement from Super Stone Clean

July 5 2014

We are very pleased to announce the signing of an agreement between the Hungarian company Green Living Matrix and our company for the introduction of our pyrolysis technology and biochar products know how to the EU.

Iwamoto Inc. has been chosen by Green Living Matrix as a strategic partner to provide Super Stone Clean 530, minerals and biochar additives and a micro nano bubble generator for it's upcoming biochar centred research and development project. For further information please see the attached file 'Green Living Matrix and Iwamoto Inc'.

We look forward to with expectation to the success of this project and the further introduction of our products to the EU and the world.
